Our Speakers

June Anne Burke

June Ann Burke is a Partner in Baker & McKenzie's Global Equity Services Group in New York. Ms. Burke advises clients as to the tax, legal and accounting considerations of awarding equity and other long-term incentive vehicles to employees and non-employees around the world. She advises clients as to plan implementation, ongoing plan compliance, and tax and legal considerations with respect to incentive awards in the context of corporate transactions, such as mergers, IPOs and redomestications. In addition, Ms. Burke advises clients as to the taxation of equity and other incentive compensation awards in cross border situations.

Ms. Burke has spoken and written extensively on global equity topics. She is currently serving her second term on the Board of Directors of the Global Equity Organization and is Secretary of the Board.

Brian K. Wydajewski

Brian Wydajewski is a principal in the Chicago office of the international law firm of Baker & McKenzie LLP. Mr. Wydajewski focuses his practice on international compensation and employment matters, and heads the Chicago Office's Global Equity Services practice which assists multinational corporations with the design, implementation and operation of global equity compensation plans.

As part of his practice, Mr. Wydajewski advises companies on diverse issues ranging from the registration and prospectus requirements associated with the offer of equity compensation in non-U.S. jurisdictions, the structure of equity compensation arrangements to achieve preferential tax treatment and minimize employer tax obligations, and the employment law considerations associated with the use of equity compensation awards internationally. He also advises multinational corporations on compensation, benefits and employment law issues arising in the context of complex corporate transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, spin-offs, and initial public offers.

Mr. Wydajewski is a frequent speaker and writer on global equity compensation and international compensation, benefits and employment law topics, and is the past chair of the Employee Benefits Section of the Illinois State Bar Association. He is a member of the Chicago Bar Association, the Illinois State Bar Association, the American Bar Association, the National Association of Stock Plan Professionals and the Global Equity Organization, and he is an adjunct professor at the Center for Tax Law and Employee Benefits at the John Marshall Law School.
