Labor and Employment Department Fall Seminar - Friday, October 25th

A complimentary seminar presented by Shipman & Goodwin LLP

2013 Update on Labor and Employment Law

Please join us for our annual fall seminar on October 25, 2013 at the Hartford Marriott Downtown. This promises to be an interesting and informative program regarding recent developments in labor and employment law. Our half-day seminar will include discussions of the timely topics listed here as well as updates on recent legislation and court decisions affecting employers.

We hope you will be able to attend.

Please register online by clicking on October 25 on our events calendar or fill out and return the reply card as early as possible. In the event that we need to limit attendance, we will honor the reservations of those who respond first.

Session Topics

I. SOCIAL MEDIA TODAY:

Are You Ready for Instagram, Vine and All the Latest That Social Media Brings Into the Workplace?

Now that your office has a policy, how do you deal with the evolving world of social media? We will address the latest developments in employment law and social media, and provide guidance to employers on dealing with this shifting landscape.

II. WHAT'S NEW?

An Update on Important Legislative and Legal Developments Affecting Employers

This year has been active in legal developments affecting employees. Included in the discussion will be changes to the Personnel File Act and updates on the Affordable Care Act, as well as other legislative changes and case decisions.

III. FROM START TO FINISH:

When and How to Use Employment and Severance Agreements

Employers often struggle with whether to use employment and severance agreements for employees. We will discuss how and when to use such agreements, and strategies to minimize the risks of potential litigation.

IV. STOP THE WHISTLING!

Dealing With the Rise of Whistleblower Complaints

Whistleblower complaints are becoming more common, and employees have several ways to claim protection under a variety of laws. We will discuss the different types of complaints and how employers can effectively defend against such claims.
