

“Chronic condition” - Employees must certify that they visited a doctor at least twice a year for the condition. If an employee is taking leave involving more than three consecutive calendar days of incapacity plus two visits to a health care provider, the two visits must occur within 30 days of the period of incapacity.